2009 is off to a fast start with our first convocations in the cities of Chiquimula and Coban in Guatemala. Then, in March, we head to Kyrgyzstan for two more Dream Maker conferences. We are grateful that the Lord has supplied the financial underwriting for these two important projects. Your continued support of this ministry is allowing us to reach thousands of teachers and tens of thousands of students with the Gospel.

This year in the spring, we will meet with officials in Armenia to secure the final approval to move forward with the translation of the curriculum into Armenian. We hope to offer the Morals and Ethics convocations there in late 2009 or early 2010. With the translation team in place, we are just waiting for the approval to start.

During the last week of January, our leadership team will gather to map out strategies for the remainder of 2009 and early 2010. We want to make sure that we are being good stewards of the finances God has entrusted to us. Some highly strategic places have asked for our assistance, and several new countries have asked us to come and consider sharing our materials with their teachers.

Our dilemma is not having places that want us to come; it is where to designate the limited resources we have at this time. Like everyone, the financial uncertainties and economic slowdown have caused us to prioritize with wise allocations of our resources. Please pray for us as we pray and plan for the next 14 months of ministry.

Thank you, again, for being such a vital part of our team. Your prayers and willingness to support our ministry is crucial as we move forward.
